The Honors Program is open to all senior Chicano/Latino Studies majors with a grade point average of 3.3 overall and 3.5 in a minimum of five Chicano/Latino Studies courses. Previous completion of CHC/LAT 101 and 102W is strongly recommended. Students formally apply to the Honors Program at the end of the junior year.

Requirements for the Honors Program: Enrollment in Chicano/Latino Studies H190A Honors Research Preparation in fall, H190B Honors Field Research in winter, H190C Honors Thesis in spring and completion of a senior honors thesis.

Name: ________________________________  SID #: ____________________

Local Address: ________________________________________________________

Permanent Address: _____________________________________________________

Email: ________________________  Local Phone: ____________________________

Units Completed: ________  Cum. GPA: _________  Major GPA: _________

Proposed Thesis Topic: ________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

Faculty Advisor: ____________________________________________

Faculty Signature: ________________________________  Date: ______________

Student’s Signature: ________________________________  Date: ______________

Chair’s Signature: ________________________________  Date: ______________

Please submit typed application to Professor Glenda M. Flores
Social Sciences Tower, Room 371
Deadline: 5:00pm on TBA