Application
Chicano/Latino Studies
Honors Program 2017-2018

The Honors Program is open to all senior Chicano/Latino Studies majors with a grade point average of 3.3 overall and 3.5 in a minimum of five Chicano/Latino Studies courses. Previous completion of CHC/LAT 101 and 102W is strongly recommended. Students formally apply to the Honors Program at the end of the junior year.

Requirements for the Honors Program: Enrollment in Chicano/Latino Studies H190A Honors Research Preparation in fall, H190B Honors Field Research in winter, H190C Honors Thesis in spring and completion of a senior honors thesis.

Name: ________________________________ SID #: ____________________

Local Address: ________________________________________________________

Permanent Address: ____________________________________________________

Email: ___________________ Local Phone: ________________________________

Units Completed: ________ Cum. GPA: _________ Major GPA: ________

Proposed Thesis Topic: ________________________________________________
                                                  _______________________________
                                                  _______________________________
                                                  _______________________________

Faculty Advisor: _______________________________________

Faculty Signature: _______________________________ Date: _______________

Student’s Signature: _____________________________ Date: _______________

Chair’s Signature: _______________________________ Date: _______________

Please submit typed application to Professor Glenda M. Flores
Social Sciences Tower, Room 371
Deadline: 5:00pm on TBA